Come to school dressed as your favourite character/book theme. Be as creative as you can! Remember to be as sustainable as you can and try to put together an outfit with items you already have or can borrow!

Throughout the day, there will be lots of reading activities for children to take part in. Staff will be sharing lots of stories throughout the week. children will also take part in a whole-school 'Big Read', where children will visit other classrooms to read with pupils of different ages. We will be listening out for the school bell to ring, at random times in the day, as it will signal that everyone in the school building is to 'DROP EVERYTHING AND READ!'

We look forward to seeing you there!

Best wishes,
