Common themes

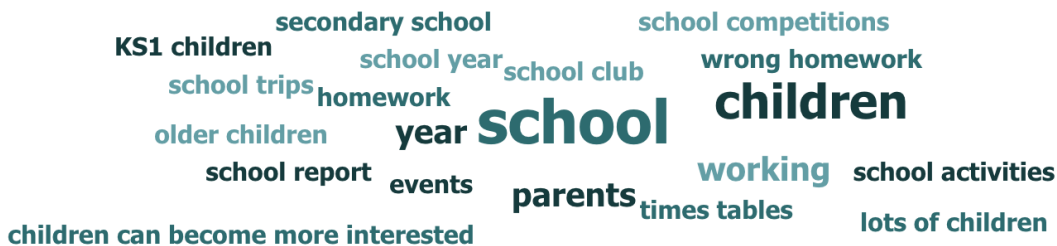

Thank you to all of you who completed the free text boxes at the end of the survey. We have collated your responses and pulled out the common themes which are as follows:

What we do well:

- Safe nurturing and compassionate environment
- Community feel, close knit and welcoming
- Standards of behaviour and high expectations for every child.
- Promoting wellbeing
- Being pupil centred
- Helping children to become well-rounded, active citizens
- Building children's desire to question and find out about new things.
- Children feel supported and listened to.
- Involving all children in school activities
- Approachable staff who are helpful and understanding
- Listening to the needs of children
- Very inclusive, friendly and happy school where the children are given opportunities for leadership and responsibility.
- Broad & varied curriculum
- Creativity, the arts and self-development.
- Good communication with parents and children.
- Instils confidence as well as an ethos of helping others.
- Encouraging children to reach their own full potential.
- Creating a caring and Christian community with strong values.

Ideas for where next:

- Homework – better structure, more focused, improved feedback, more engaging
- Better communication at the start of the school year regarding practical arrangements (PE days, changing of books etc.)
- More accessible clubs for KS1 children
- More opportunities to speak with teachers, review work etc.
- Option for face to face parent evening meeting if wanted (not just the virtual option)
- Better and more accessible VLE
- Increased support for parents as to how to support children's learning at home.
- Ensure stretch and challenge for pupils especially those at Greater Depth
